

Triumph Accounting Windows Point Of Sale Features

- Fast, efficient and ergonomically designed for maximum throughput.
- Supports touch screens, barcode readers, cash drawers, pole displays and slip printers.
- POS functions can be activated by touching/clicking a screen button or via a keyboard accelerator key.
- PLU buttons can be configured with product images.
- Zoom functions take you directly to Stock Enquiry/Maintenance and Customer Account Enquiry/Maintenance.
- Fast functions for product returns, quantity sales and price variations make processing more efficient.
- Product returns can be flagged as damaged goods.
- A sale maybe parked to allow other sales to be processed immediately.
- Full integration with the back-office accounting modules; Inventory, Special Pricing, Debtors, Sales Analysis, General Ledger and Bank Reconciliation.
- Postings occur as transactions are committed, i.e. no End of Day process.
- Stock lines, non-stock lines with there own cost and description lines may be entered.
- Multiple subtotals may be printed.
- Supports lay-bys and gift vouchers.
- Lay-by payments show the original sale and history of prior payments.
- Lay-bys and gift vouchers may be cancelled.
- Payment types include cash, cheque, EFTPOS, gift voucher, credit cards, lay-by, account and miscellaneous tender.
- Any number of payment types may be used on a sale as well as multiple payments of the same type.
- Discount can be entered as a percentage or a dollar value on each line or on the total of the sale.
- Optionally have two different dockets, one for cash sales and one for accounts.
- Docket layouts are totally customisable through Crystal Reports.
- Reprint last docket and reprint any docket functions are supported.
- POS transactions can be retained as long as required.
- Customer accounts maybe setup on the fly, including COD only accounts.
- COD accounts can use any account credits to pay for a sale.
- Customer account code maybe entered at any time during the sale with all discounts and prices recalculated accordingly.
- Customers may pay off accounts at POS and receive a receipt.
- EFTPOS readers can be shared between multiple POS workstations.
- Cash drawer journals for miscellaneous purchases and a float balance allow for accurate reconciliations.
- Customer profiles and sales information may be collected at POS.
- Access to POS functions is controlled by User Group security. Disabled functions and buttons are not displayed.

- Restricted access (discount given, product returns, credit limit overrides etc) is controlled by User Group security.
- Supervisor overrides, based on security level, can be applied to a POS sale.
- Sale line data entry fields can be totally customised for maximum throughput. The minimum required field is product code.
- POS screen can be left locked in a secure mode.
- End of shift markers allow banking functions to occur independently of POS operations at any time.
- EFTPOS and cash can be processed separately or at the same time on a till by till basis.
- Z reads and a Till Reconciliation report give a complete transaction audit.